Dear Friend:

Thank you for participating in our 10th District Job Fair. Today's event was organized to help pair some of the area's leading employers with potential talent. This packet provides information on attendees, government employment resources and other federal and local assistance programs that you might find of interest.

Members of my staff are available to answer any of your questions. Please do not hesitate to contact my District Office at (847) 272-0404 or visit my website at www.dold.house.gov with any questions or concerns.

I wish you the best of luck in your job search.

Best Regards,

About Lake Forest Graduate School of Management

Since 1946, Lake Forest Graduate School of Management (LFGSM) has been one of the area's largest not-for-profit graduate business schools. The Lake Forest MBA program excels in helping functional experts – in areas like finance, sales, IT, marketing, engineering, and science – become broad thinkers and strong leaders who rise higher in their careers. LFGSM's MBA program is designed for the working professional and is offered during evenings and weekends, as well as during weekdays for career re-launchers. Organizations whose employees choose the Lake Forest MBA report high retention of these talented professionals – individuals who stay at their companies long after their MBA graduation to leverage their LFGSM learning to expand their impact within the organization. Well known for its part-time MBA program for experienced professionals, the School also delivers a broad array of Corporate Learning Solutions, including customized certificate programs and workshops. Lake Forest Graduate School is the premier choice for practical business education, and has campuses in Schaumburg and Lake Forest, as well as on site at area companies. Learn more at www.LFGSM.edu or by calling 847-234-5005 or email at contactus@lfgsm.edu.
